THE HON. JESSE G. SHEPHERD.

The Hon. Jesse George Shepherd is no more! He died at his residence near Fayetteville, yesterday morning, Jan. 13th, 1869. It is but seldom we are called upon to record the death of one so highly esteemed or whose loss in all the relations of life, private and public, will be so keenly felt. To his family his loss is irreparable. The sympathies of our entire community are theirs. The church of which he was so long a member, has lost one of its brightest jewels, and the community one of its most influential and useful citizens.

Judge Shepherd was born in Fayetteville, June 23rd, 1821. He received a good education and graduated with distinction at Chapel Hill. His youthful training was under Whig influence, but from his earliest manhood he remained a constant and unwavering Democrat. As a public man, he was eminently liberal and conservative.

He represented the county of Cumberland in the House of Commons in 1854 and 1856. He was elected Speaker of the House in 1856 and presided with marked ability, winning the confidence and esteem of all parties. He was appointed one of the Judges of the Superior Court by Governor Bragg, and the appointment was confirmed by the Legislature of 1858-'59. He resigned this position in 1860 for the more lucrative practice of his profession at the Bar.—He was elected to the proposed Convention in February, 1861—which was not called. He was again elected to the Legislature in 1862 and 1864. He was one of the Governor's Council during the administration of Govs. Bragg, Ellis and Worth. In every position to which the confidence of the people called him, he was faithful and true.—As a lawyer, he stood in the front rank of the profession, a safe counsellor and zealous and able advocate.

He was an impartial and incorruptible Judge, an affectionate husband, a kind father, a sincere and humble Christian.—Truly may we point to him and say, "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace."

He married early in life, an estimable lady, the sister of the Hon. J. C. Dobbin.—He leaves a wife and a large and tender family to mourn his untimely loss.

For the last seventeen or eighteen years, he was a Ruling Elder in the Presbyterian Church, and in all the Judicatories of that Church, the influence of Judge Shepherd was good. Zealous in the discharge of all his duties, inflexible in his faith, ardently attached to the Church of his choice, and ever watchful to guard her true interests, he was looked up to as an example well worthy of imitation. No Elder exerted more influence. The name of Jesse G. Shepherd will forever remain on the purest page of North Carolina's history.

From the Savannah Republican.

THE OGEECHEE NEGRO REBELLION.

We think the manner in which the Ogeechee troubles have been managed by the people of Savannah, is something that should be set down to their credit. It reflects favorably upon their good judgment, their forbearance and their humanity. A negro insurrection, embracing, it is variously estimated, from five to twelve hundred armed men, take possession of the country, drive off the white inhabitants, plunder the plantations of every thing valuable and having organized a government of their own, set the authorities of the State at defiance. They went even further; they arrested and robbed the officers of the law, and drove them from the district with a threat of death in the event of their return. Every highway through their neighborhood was picketed with armed men by whom all travelers were stopped and subjected to insult and indignity.

This was the state of things which the people of Savannah had to face. Nothing could be more exasperating, or calculated to arouse a feeling of vengeance in their bosoms. It was also in their power, in the absence of the militia and a Governor to be called upon, to have organized a force, and within twenty four hours swept the high-handed insurgents from the face of the earth. But there were other considerations to be taked into the account beyond mere retribution. Great as were the crimes of the insurrectionary force, our people took counsel of the law, of moderation, and of forbearance that is due to the weak and misguided. Their conduct was but the legitimate result of the teachings of bad men of a different race, and they possessed not the sagacity to foresee its consequences or the moral sense to appreciate its true enormity. It was, therefore, deemed to be a wise and Christian course to deal gently with the offenders, and, if possible, restore order without bloodshed. To this end the military authorities at Washington were appealed to, with the belief that the appearance of a formidable body of troops in the neighborhood of the disorder would effectually quell the spirit of resistance, and open up the way for the law to take its course.

Such were the motives that animated the considerate men who have had this matter in charge, and we regret to see that they have been misunderstood in some sections of the country, and we fear by the insurgents themselves. The military, accompanied by the civil authorities, have proceeded to the revolutionary districts, and we anticipate the happiest results. Some of the parties accused have already come forward and delivered themselves up to the authorities, and no doubt the great body of them will soon be in the hands of the law, and without those frightful scenes that would have followed a collision between them and the citizens.

In this we believe our people have acted with commendable wisdom and prudence. Besides securing a peaceful solution of a most dangerous rebellion, the hopes of those who expected to make political capital of these troubles, have been sadly disappointed.

REMARKABLE TEMPERANCE LECTURE.

Goethe tells the following story, which amusingly illustrates the capacity for drink of the Rhinelanders:

"The Bishop of Mayenne once delivered a sermon against drunkenness, and after painting in the strongest colors the evils of over indulgence, concluded as follows: 'But the abuse of wine does not exclude its use, for it is written that wine rejoices the heart of man. Probably, there is no one in my congregation who cannot drink four bottles of wine without feeling any disturbances of his senses; but if any man, at the seventh or eighth bottle so forgets himself as to abuse and strike his wife and children and treat his best friends as enemies, let him look into his conscience, and in future stop at the sixth bottle. Yet if after drinking eight, or even ten or twelve bottles, he can still take his Christian neighbor lovingly by the hand, and obey the orders of his spiritual and temporal supporters, let him thankfully drink his modest draught. He must be careful, however, as to taking any more, for it is seldom that Providence gives any one the special grace to drink sixteen bottles at a setting, as it has enabled me, its unworthy servant, to do without either neglecting my duties or losing my temper."

Court of Oyer and Terminer,
FOR WAKE COUNTY.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 14th, 1869.

J. N. Bunting, Clerk of the Superior Court,
Wake County:

You will take notice that I will hold a Court of Oyer and Terminer for the County of Wake, to commence on the fourth Monday of the present month, it being the 25th of January inst. You will give the same publicity. You will notify the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners that said Court will be held and that a lawful Jury will be required. You will issue subpœnas returnable to said Term, both for State and Defendant's witnesses.

Prisoners in Jail will be tried first, and you will notify them of the fact and issue such subpœnas for witnesses as they may wish.

Upon warrants of arrest you will issue subpœnas for witnesses endorsed on said warrants to go before the Grand Jury.

And the Court expects a hearty co-operation on the part of the officers of the Court, in order that we may dispose of as much business as the limited period of time will afford.

The Clerk is authorized to publish in Standard and Sentinel a notice of this Court and also hand-bills.

LIFE INSURANCE.
The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.
BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
141 Broadway, N. Y.
ASSETS OVER
$1,000,000!
CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK.....President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE.....Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER.....Consulting Actuary
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D.....Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

LIFE INSURANCE.
ÆTNA
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Hon. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary,
H. W. STJOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867.

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Policies Insured in '67,	15,251
Am'nt insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The Ætna issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The Ætna issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The Ætna's ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The Ætna is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.
PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:
Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.
CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.
Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,942.66.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

DESPOTISM OF RECONSTRUCTION.

How it happened that the South was not hurried into the horrors of a second civil war, under the Jacobinical atrocities of Reconstruction, can only be accounted for by the complete exhaustion of the country and the dead repose of despotism which seems to have settled upon the people.

While Sickles and Canby were trampling, not on us alone but on the Constitution of the country, as narrated by Gov. Worth, every county town had its Captain, Lieutenant, Corporal, or political preacher, to distress the citizens, without distinction of sex, condition or age.

In Orange county was the thief and plunderer, Lieutenant Crockett, of the Bureau. He summoned gentle ladies of the county to appear in his brutish presence, at his quarters in the Court House.

He it was who turned two felons out of jail, as Senator Sweet would say, for "dollars and cents," and a gold watch. He it was who arrested Chief Justice Ruffin without cause. He it was, who was by the Grand Jury presented for high crimes and misdemeanors.

ARRESTING A VICE PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER.

It was said of Judge Mangum that no one could so well perform the part of a Senator as he. He was a man of great ability, a speaker of the first order, a statesman of wide and patriotic views, the compeer of Badger, Clay, and Webster, and their equal, who had joined with them in the pacification of South Carolina and the troubles of 1850. He loved his country, its Constitution and its flag, too. It might be thought that his intrinsic and substantial claims to public service and renown would have given to his aged widow and fatherless daughters some hold upon the respectful consideration of even a Yankee. Yet it did not. More than one order was made for the arrest of his daughters. One order was made to arrest and take them not only from home but thirty miles off, to an adjoining county.

An ex-Minister of Spain, hearing of the order, or intention to execute it, with that gallantry so natural and becoming to him, remonstrated against the order until the Bureau, in very shame, forbore to press it.

But this dead Judge, Senator and Vice President of the United States, once had a son—an only son—a lad who was slain at the first Manassas. We were shown the spot where he fell. Hard by where he lay wounded was the dead body of Fisher, and the dead bodies of four horses of Ricketts' New England battery. When we saw the dead horses, we said what an exchange—Mangum and Fisher for four dead horses! But they made all New England run, and, under the Reconstruction acts, that was enough to justify orders for the arrest of such a rebel's sister.

The King of England, without warrant, dare not enter the house of the humblest pessant; yet Jacobin Radicalism, in time of profound peace, under the Reconstruction acts of Congress, has, without warrant, invaded the sanctity of every house in the South.

"Oh, Liberty! how many crimes are committed in thy name."

THE MEN who control North Carolina no doubt laugh in their sleeves at the stupidity of our people.

We beg our readers not to suppose that we think, much of character or worth can possibly be saved from the ruin in which Holden and his crew have involved this poor old State. We point out their conduct with no such vain hope. We say to the people of the State as said the French at Waterloo: "All is lost."

Who would be Governor after Holden (except Todd)?

Who would succeed Rodman, unless "Windy?"

Who could follow Tourgee Jones, Watts, or John Pool?

But we refer to a ruin far worse than the foregoing.

The law of the State, as it now stands and as it is determined it shall stand, provides

1. That every man black and white may vote, whether he pays a poll tax or not.

2. That not a dollar of the poll tax shall go into the Treasury. Every cent of it is required to go to schools and charity.

3. That the Legislature shall tax the property of the State enough with the help of the poll tax, to send every negro to school from six to twenty-one years old. Here then stands the case:

The negroes and Albinoes are a majority in the State. They pay nothing into the Treasury. They are very great fools if they pay any poll tax at all. What they do pay is at once refunded to them in the education of their children. As to a property tax they pay none, having no property to tax and wisely not wanting any.

See the result. The North Carolina government is in the hands of those whose interests, whose hatred, whose unlimited meanness is best served by utterly ruining all value in the State. A poor, miserable, lazy, mean man wants everybody pulled down to his own level. Our Legislature, reeking with this mean spirit, is doing their work well of prostrating the poor old State. Our University is gone. Our credit is exhausted. Our taxes eat out all value of property. Our high places filled with imbecility and corruption.

"Wide o'er the field a waste of ruin lies!"

Legislature of North Carolina.

Bill to amend the Charter of the Town of Elizabeth City, and all acts amendatory thereof, passed its second reading.

Resolution proposing to raise a joint Committee to investigate the present management of the North Carolina Railroad.

Mr. Welker moved its indefinite postponement. After severe discussion the motion was adopted, by the following vote:

AYES.—Messrs. Barrow, Beasley, Beeman, Bellamy, Burns, Blythe, Eaves, Forkner, Graham, Harrington, Hyman, (colored,) Lindsay, Long, Melchor, Richardson, Respass, Shoffner, Stephens and Welker—19.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Brogden, Blythe, Davis, Galloway, colored, Lassiter, Love, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Osborne, Purdie, Smith, Sweet, White, Winstead and Wilson—16.

On motion the Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, Jan. 18, 1869.

House called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Long, of Chatham, of the House.

Journal of Saturday last, read and approved.

Mr. Hinnant, from the Committee on Enrolment, reported various resolutions and bills, as correctly enroled.

PETITIONS &C.

Mr. Stilley, presented a communication from the citizens of Camden county, in reference to Mr. Taylor's right to the seat, now occupied by Mr. Perebee. Referred.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. French.: A resolution raising a Joint Committee, three on the part of the House, and two on the part of the Senate, to take into consideration, all matters connected with the Penitentiary.

Mr. French said the Senate had constituted itself a court of inquiry, without consulting this House in the least. He did not see why this House should not have a share in this investigation. He moved to suspend the rules and adopt.

Mr. Sinclair, objected to this resolution, and favored the adoption of the Senate resolution now on the House Calendar, &c.

The question recurring upon the motion to suspend the rules, it was put to a vote and lost.

BILLS.

By Mr. Ingram: A bill authorizing elections in certain townships in the State.—Referred.

The hour for the special order was announced, to wit: The bill for the better protection of debtors.

The question recurred upon Mr. Seymour's substitute, offered some days ago, when the bill was under discussion. After a long discussion, going over the some ground as in debates, when this measure was last under consideration. The substitute was put to a vote and rejected.

The question recurred upon a substitute offered by J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, and it was adopted.

The queston recurring upon the passage of the bill on its second reading. Mr. Ellis offered the following proviso, viz: Provided, That this bill shall not apply to any debt contracted since the ratification of the Constitution. Lost.

The bill then passed its second reading.

A communication was read from the Committee on Frauds and Corruptions, stating that the Sheriff of Wake had served a summons upon W. A. Mann, to appear before the Committee, and the said Mann has failed to make his appearance. The Committee therefore refers the matter to the Assembly for such action as may appear to them to be necessary.

By permission, Mr. Estes introduced a bill, amendatory to an act, entitled "An Act to re-enact and confirm the issue of Bonds to certain Railroad Companies."—Lies over.

Mr. Ellis moved to make the Senate resolution forbidding the Treasurer to issue bonds for the purchase of the Penitentiary land, the special order for to-morrow morning at half past 10 o'clock.

On the adoption of that motion, Mr. Ellis called for the yeas and nays.

The call being sustained, resulted in a vote of yeas 81 nays 1.

On motion of Mr. Stilley, the other Senate resolution and bill, in reference to the same matter, was included in the special order.

SPECIAL ORDER.

House bill No. 27, [Bill to provide for the collection of taxes by the State, and by the several Counties in the State, on property, polls and incomes.]

Mr. Estes moved to reconsider the vote by which Section 11 was adopted. Carried.

Mr. E. then offered the following substitute for the section, which was adopted.

SEC. 11. At the time and place appointed by the Assessor, the tax payers shall attend and the Assessor shall read over to each one given in his list, all the articles and subjects of taxation, and thereupon he shall render to the Assessor his list of taxables, and, at the same time, taking the following oath, viz: You, A. B., do solemnly swear that you have rendered a true and full statement of all subjects of taxation which you in your own right, or as agent of, or in trust for, any other person, or in any other capacity are by law required to list for taxation, according to your best knowledge, information and belief, so help me God.

Section 13 was then read, when Mr. Estes moved to amend by consolidating Sections 13 and 14. Carried.

The Section, as amended, was then adopted.

In section 15, (as amended in bill) Mr. Proctor moved to strike out, in line 22, the word "one," and insert "three"

On motion of Mr. Proctor, the yeas and nays were called upon the adoption of his amendment, and resulted in a vote of yeas 55 nays 30.

Mr. Argo moved to reconsider the vote just taken.

Mr. Sinclair moved to lay that motion on the table.

On that motion the yeas and nays were called and resulted in a vote of yeas 45 nays 38.

Mr. Estes moved to strike out, in line 19, the words "and kitchen," and in line 22, strike out the word "three" and insert "one."

Mr. Durham moved for a division of the question.

The question then recurred upon that part of the amendment amendatory of the 19th line and it was rejected.

In order to entertain the latter part of the amendment, to-wit: strike out, in line 22, the word "three" and insert "two," it required a motion to reconsider the vote by which the motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Mr. Justice, of Rutherford, made the motion.

Mr. Estes moved to postpone the consideration of that motion until to-morrow morning. Lost.

Mr. Argo said that it had been several times intimated that the advocacy of the $300 exemption originated in the desire on the part of the Democrats of this House to prevent the Republicans from passing a tax bill which would yield sufficient revenue to meet the obligations of the State. As far as he was concerned he denied the charge. He regarded his oath to the Constitution as compelling him to vote for any just bill raising money enough to meet the current expenses of the State and to pay the interest on her debt. His object in moving to reconsider the vote, and then voting to lay that motion on the table, was to favor the laboring classes, if any favor was to be bestowed, and let the classes able to pay the taxes, bear the burden, &c.

Mr. Estes believed this to be a Democratic movement, and whether they were influenced by any such motives or not, he firmly believed such to be the case, &c.

Mr. Durham said he did not care what the gentleman believed. He was a Democrat or Conservative just as they pleased to call him, and intended to vote for just such measures as seemed to him meet and proper. He wished the gentleman from New Hanover, (Mr. Estes,) to distinctly understand that the Democrats and Conservatives of this House were not to be frightened from their opinions and positions, by his (Mr. E's) or by anybody else's charges and insinuations. He (Mr. Durham,) did not see why this measure could be styled a Democratic one, when it had originated with a Republican member, (Mr. Proctor,) and had been supported in a speech by another Republican (Mr. Sinclair.) The gentleman (Mr. Estes) might drive his own party into measures like a shepherd drives his sheep into the fold, but gentlemen of the other side would not be dictated to, or intimidated.

Mr. Sinclair said he and his colleague (Mr. Proctor) had determined, to endeavor to secure the exemption after a careful examination of the Constitution, &c. No Democrat had been consulted in the least, on the other hand, some five or six had voted with Mr. Estes.

Mr. Proctor, said his claims to be a good Republican, would be thoroughly confirmed by an examination of the Journal of the House, and if certain gentlemen saw fit to persist in calling this a Democratic measure, all that he could say, was, that it must go for one. He introduced the following from his heart, that in doing so, he did nothing more, than what the interest of his constituency demanded &c.

Pending further debate, the House, adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

For the Sentinel.

HALIFAX, Co., N. C., Jan. 13, 1869.

Ed. Sentinel:—In the proceedings of the Senate of N. C., as given in the Sentinel of the 12th. inst, I notice the following paragraph:

"Mr. Lindsay, from the Committe on Claims, reported favorably on a claim against the Insane Asylum in favor of James H. Moore and John Caswell, for $173."

This is new to me, if I am the James H. Moore alluded to, and I don't know any other. I have not petitioned the Legislature for any thing, and I don't know who John Caswell is, nor anything of any claim he has against the Insane Asylum. Certainly I have no joint claim with John Caswell against the Insane Asylum, but if John Caswell or any body else is using my name before a Committee to give plausibility to any claim, and the money should be appropriated, I think it nothing but fair that I should have some of the money. But I have not asked the Legislature for any, nor authorized any one else to do so.

Yours, JAS. H. MOORE,
Former Steward Insane Asylum.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

LEXINGTON, Jan. 15, 1867.

Editor of the Sentinel:—DEAR SIR:—We know you feel great interest in the North Carolina Railroad, and we well remember your success in running it last year.

We heard a friend of the Road say that the Company could afford to pay the present President and Superintendent, (Smith and Johnson,) five thousand dollars each to stay at home and allow you, and the late Superintendent, James Anderson, to run the road. We thought it extravagant talk; but, after the great collision, we were satisfied the Company would have made money and give them $20,000 to keep off the Road.

Why have you said nothing about the arrangement with the Raleigh & Gaston Road. The Road from Raleigh to Goldsboro is now dead. No freight, or but little, goes that way. We heard a gentleman say that they had missed connection twice at Charlotte, when he was there.

They advertise piously to run no train on Sunday. Yet they have had two collisions on Sunday, and one of them destroying thousands of property. So it would seem they do have Sunday trains. With James Anderson for Superintendent, that collision would not have occurred. We have heard the damage of that collision estimated as high as $15,000. We saw one passenger who had not been asked for his ticket by the conductor, which he said would do for another trip.

At first no one was condemned for the collision—then it is thought they punished the wrong man; but, being a good Radical, he was taken again in the employment of the Company.

From your being so quiet, we hope you are not in the Ring to sell the Road, that the Raleigh & Gaston Road, and the Wall Street Ring may buy.

Yours,
N. C.

$ 23,000,000.00.

ANNUAL INCOME,

$7,500,000.00.

Policies in Force Over 60,000.

FOR EVERY $100 OF LIABILITIES, IT HAS $154 OF ASSETS.

THIS COMPANY has proven to be the CHEAPEST, BEST AND MOST RELIABLE in the country, because it has the largest Income, largest number of Policy holders largest surplus of Assets over Liabilities, its dividends to policyholders have been larger than any other Company, and ratio of expenses less; therefore being the cheapest and best Company for the insured.

The great clamor against the assessment of premium notes or their deduction from the policy in case of death, does not apply to the Connecticut Mutual, for, judging the future by the past the dividends will cancel the premium notes whether the party lives or dies.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance has been doing a safe and increasing business for the last twenty-two years. It does not deem it necessary to make GRAND PROMISES of what they INTEND DOING but will insure persons on any plan desired, and all its policies are non-forfeiting for a stated amount after two or three payments.

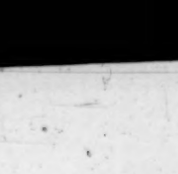
Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.



The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of Scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in good cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, uncleanliness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, in whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, for Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the disease caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is of sufficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power. So potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Hemorrhages, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abscess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed buoyant with that prolific life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose fountains of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range. In any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt without LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed in the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore difficult for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the aromatic ferment, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, the name and that of the preparation were embossed on

DIGEST OF NEWS.

Gold closed in New York, on last evening, at 1.35¾.

Cotton was quoted at 29¼.

North Carolina Bonds: New 63½.

We announce, with profound regret, the death of the Hon. Jesse G. Shepherd, of Fayetteville on our first page will be found a proper tribute to his memory.

There was a destructive fire in Smithville, Brunswick Co., on Friday last. The Wilmington Journal gives the following account of losses, &c:

"Loss of Mrs. Everett on building occupied by Col. Thurston and Government officer, $2,000; on store occupied by Mr. Legg, $600. Loss of Mr. Reynolds, on dwelling, $1,500. Loss of Dunn, Dwinnelle & Co. on store occupied by P. Pricleau & Co., $1,200. Loss of Dr. W. G. Custis, on dwelling, $3,000. Loss of Mr. P. Pricleau, on dwelling, $3,500. Loss of Mrs. Lockwood, on dwelling occupied by Mrs Duffy, $2,000. Total loss $13,800. This includes only the loss of building. There was not one cent's worth of insurance on the whole amount. The goods in the stores of Messrs. Legg and Pricleau & Co., were safely removed, except ten barrels of wine belonging to the latter parties. This is covered by insurance the stock being insured to the extent of $1,000. The other sufferers were enabled to remove all their valuable effects before the dwellings were consumed. This is a sad blow, and as a consequence, great distress are seen and heavily felt throughout the whole town."

In the Senate, on Thursday last, Mr. Sumner introduced a bill to enforce certain provisions of the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States, which he said had become necessary in consequence of certain persons in Kentucky, disqualified by the fourteenth amendment, having undertaken to exercise official functions. He understood that other persons, in Virginia, disqualified in like manner, had done the same thing; and, therefore, contrary to his expectation at the time of the adoption of the amendment, it would not execute itself, but must be enforced by appropriate legislation.

The New York Tribune is said to have made $180,000 profit last year. Lying on the South is profitable.

On the 27th of this month, at 7.32 o'clock P. M., the full moon, in the sign of Cancer will move into a portion of the shadow of the earth and become a little less than one-half eclipsed. The middle of the eclipse will occur at 8,42, the end at 9,53 in the evening. The size of the eclipse will be 5½ digits on the northern limb. The moon will be one hour above the eastern horizon at five minutes after six o'clock on that evening.

There is a Miss Godsey in Kentucky who has slept for nineteen years except for intervals of ten minutes a dozen times a day, during which she eats. She is intellectual.

Mrs. Partington thinks the pillars of liberty are stuffed with the feathers of the American Eagle. The old lady is mistaken. Kinky hair is used at present.

A Florida correspondent says they have great trouble in trying cases before the mixed white and black juries in that state, because "the jurymen will go to sleep."

The Ladies' Memorial Association of Atlanta, are about erecting a shaft one hundred feet high to commemorate the Confederate dead.

The telegraph wires North, last night were burdened with the story repeated from every quarter, of crime and disaster, (Forney.) Let reconstruction commence in the North.

The Hon Joab Epaminondas Squash has been elected a member of the Kansas Legislature.—The Squash family are largely represented in Southern Legislatures.

THE MARKET.—It is rumored that the Municipal authorities of this City are speaking of purchasing Nash Square for the location of the Market. This Square would doubtless make a splendid location for the Market. It would, however, involve a heavy cost, yet that Square properly managed might be made a source of great revenue to the City. In view of these facts we judge the authorities would hardly determine upon so costly an enterprise, and one in which the interests of so many are concerned, without first appealing to the voters of the City. Were the market to be removed, we should insist that the present Square be kept open.

REMEMBER THE POOR.—Our people will not forget the Lecture on Brazil this evening at 7 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church, by Rev. Mr. Morton who has spent some time in that country. A collection for the poor of the city will be taken up by the Young Men's Christian Association.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to see in our midst that gallant soldier and accomplished gentleman, Gen. R. F. Hoke, who is on a short visit to the city, with his young and lovely bride. They are stopping at the Yarborough House.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.—Bishop Atkinson preached to a large congregation at Christ Church, in this city, on Sunday. He administered the right of confirmation to nineteen persons.

SUPREME COURT.—We learn that this body, on Saturday last, appointed Maj. W. H. Bagley, of this city, Clerk of the Court. This and the appointment of Mr. Phillips, Reporter, both well qualified for their positions, are in striking contrast with the removal of that sterling old patriot and Union man, Jas. Litchford, Esq., as Marshal and the appointment of Dave Wicker in his place. The members of that Court cannot look upon the honest face of James Litchford for the next ten years, if he should live so long, without blushing for very shame, at so disgraceful an act.

SORGHUM.—If a Company could be raised in North Carolina to purchase the patent of the Kentucky Company, to make sugar of sorghum cane, it would be a better business than insurance, which seems to be the great matter of concern. The lands, and climate of North Carolina are finely adapted to the culture of sorghum and the manufacture of syrup and sugar. We hear it said that one of our Eastern farmers, who was nearly ruined by the culture of cotton of 1867, made largely of sorghum in 1868 and let cotton alone. He has shipped his sorghum syrup to Boston and sold it for 78 cents per gallon and will realize a much larger profit than if he had made cotton.

CHANGE OF BASE.—We anticipate an announcement which may be expected in the Standard of to day, or, at all events, within a few days. Gen. Littlefield is to retire and J. B. Neathery becomes the ostensible purchaser of the establishment. Of course, however, all this is bogus. The "Governor" has probably never lost his proprietorship of the concern, and never ceased to "run the machine." All these twistings and turnings intricate terrible meanness and demoralization in the camp.

NOT YET CLAIMED.—Gen. Littlefield, Editor of the Standard, not having arrived, no one has appeared to claim the reward of $50,000, Confederate money, new issue, which we offered for his appearance.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We invite attention to the changes in the advertisement of Messrs. Branch & Sons, Richmond.

See advertisement announcing Concert at Tucker Hall, on Wednesday night, for benefit of Prof. Priest, instructor of the 40th. U. S. (colored) Infantry Band.

LETTER FROM ITALY.

We are permitted to make the following interesting extracts from a letter of a lady of this city, now travelling in Europe:

FLORENCE, Dec. 13, 1868.

Here, we have been in Florence for a week, with bright pleasant weather, feeling like our Spring, and a beautiful country.—We are now in the midst of the garden of Italy, and olives take the place of other trees. Our window looks down upon the Arno, with the fashionable street "Long Arno" between us and it; beyond the olive clad slopes of the Apennines, dotted with handsome villas, monasteries, and Churches. And this is all the pleasanter from being a contrast to the snow covered Alps which we crossed, coming from Vienna, to Venice, and the cold weather that we had in Vienna, and which prevented our going out to Pesth. We stopped in Trieste one night, saw Miramar, Maximilian's Chateau, beautiful moonlight and sunrise on the Adriatic, and came on through a charming country to Venice. There we rowed in gondolas, enjoyed the moonlight on St. Marks square, and went to the theatre in a gondola. The music was entirely Rossini's (being the anniversary of the musician's death,) which I know you would have enjoyed. We went through the Doge's Palace; stood on the "Bridge of Sighs," on one side a palace on the other a prison; crossed the Rialto; stood in the market, at the head of which was Shilock's house; passed Desdemona's, Othello's and Lord Byron's houses; rowed up and down the grand canal; went out to the Lido; visited St. Mark's and the different Churches and picture galleries, and saw the various other sights of Venice. Then to Padua, which the guide-book says was founded by a brother-in-law of Priam, and, judging, from its ancient look, you would certainly think so.

After seeing its University, an imitation of the Trojan horse, and its other curiosities, we left for Bologna. Here we had the most luxurious arm chair that we have seen, and in my recollections of Bologna, that fact stands uppermost, as you can see. We went all through the University, the oldest in the world, which has even had women among its professors, one occupying the anatomical chair for fourteen years.—Here Rossini's "Stobat Mater" was first performed, Gabrani made his first experiments, and Ariosto, Dante, Lasso, Petrarch and Milton were educated. They boast at that time, students even from India, and the walls are covered with coats of arms of all nations. The Campo Santo was very interesting, and in the Academy of Fine Arts, we saw Raphael's "St. Cecilia." You will think that I skip from burying grounds to picture galleries very easily, but in fact, that is very much the way that we visit places—under the ground, on top of a mountain, in a jeweller's shop—now to a market, then in a Parliament house—here a religious service, as performed in a Catholic Church, and there a puppet show—here the smell of incense, next, the exquisite odor of a Jew quarter, here a King's pantry, and there a restaurant window with mountains of boiled meat, and a dish of fried herrings, with a beggar the purchaser at two cents for his dinner.

Here comes a grand funeral, with all the torch bearers, and regalia of the Catholic Church and this is flanked on one side by a donkey cart, on the other by a dog cart, with a woman and dog yoked in the same harness. We have seen all the saints in the calendar, in all sorts of queer ways. St. Matthew's head on a gun; St. Jerome on a crocodile; St. Mark on a winged lion; St. Luke, as an artist, sketching the Virgin; St. Benedict being, buried by the devil; St. Daniel in the lions den, on a bridge five hundred years old; St. Lazarus, as keeper of our Saviour's blood; St. Ursula, and her eleven thousand virgins; St. Mary, St. Agnes, St. Sarah, and St. Catharine, and finally, St. Nick. I have seen the spear with which our Saviour's side was pierced, preserved among the jewels of a royal treasury, the body of the High Priest of Jupiter Amnon in an Armenian Convent, the walls of a city erected out of the ransom money paid for Cour de Lion, armor enough to have equipped all the knights who went to the Holy Land, and an exquisitely beautiful fresco of our Saviour rising from the tomb, bearing in his hand what these people call his "banner," white field, quartered with a crimson cross.

You would be horribly shocked with the frequent representations of God the Father, both in statue and in painting—if we have seen one crucifix, we have seen fifty thousand. In a drive on the Cascine, we accidentally met the King. So thoroughly do Paris fashions regulate the dress of mankind that had he not been pointed out to us, we would have been ignorant of the presence of royalty. His equipage was very plain, and nothing in his dress distinguished him from the gentleman who was sitting by him. He is a man about fifty years old, very portly, and looks like he might like good living. We have been very much disappointed at not seeing the peasants dressed here, but the government has broken up the market at which they used to appear on Friday mornings. The careless, soiled appearance of the Italian soldiers compares very badly with that of the Prussian officers and men, who are the handsomest of the European soldiers. A portion of these soldiers wear the Garibaldi hat with a drooping plume of chicken feathers—it gives them a rowdy, and decidedly a "bummer" look. In the Opera here, there was a very curious feature when they undertook to produce night, it was necessary to draw the large central chandelier up through a hole in the wall. This chandelier had sixty oil lamps and they burnt oil, or candles in every part of the theatre, except the stage. This is done probably from economical considerations, as the coal used in making gas is brought from England. A scene of sunrise was an exquisitely beautiful thing—first the gray morning, then the rosy light, and as the sun appeared above the horizon, it was as bright as the sun itself. The audience, in the pit had to hold up their hands and hats, to shade their eyes. In the waiting room, as each carriage was announced, we could distinguish the Italian names for titled nobility, and they would sail out, in velvet, and ermine,—more dress than beauty.

THE CIVIL TENURE.—The position of the Senate in regard to the proposed repeal of the civil tenure act was expressed pretty thoroughly in Mr. Wilson's compromise measure of amendment to-day, which embraces the first of the modifications which these dispatches announced he would offer just two weeks ago. Mr. Wilson's amendment simply re-enacts the old law, with the exception that cabinet officers are taken out of the act altogether. Mr. Wilson's amendment must not be regarded as the ultimate concession the Senate will make. He introduced it with the expectation that another excision of the old law will yet be made, giving Grant summary power to remove all revenue officers. Mr. Frelinghuysen is most likely to add on this proposition, as he expresses himself warmly in favor of it. Further than this the Senate will not go. No majority to repeal the act can now be counted in the Senate. On that point the votes stand as before tallied in these dispatches. It is ascertained that General Grant's demand for the repeal of the law, and General Butler's prompt bid for the repeal, have made Senators careful of their dignity and resolved to yield no prerogative. On the other hand, Butler, and Washburne, and Grant (now a trading trio) declare that nothing short of full repeal will answer.

The war, which for a while did fail,
Now trebly thundering fills the gale.

The action of the House in promptly repealing the law was taken in a spirit of pure desire to put the Senate in an awkward position, and it has done it. It is understood that Mr. Wade's reference of the Repeal bill to the Retrenchment Committee has secured, if it was not designed to secure, an adverse report, as Edmunds, Williams, and Patterson, of New Hampshire, are committed to having the bill stand; and two of them to night are quoted as against even Wilson's ineffective modification of it. The Democrats of the Senate will vote against this modification, as they are for repeal—not anything short of it. The feud between Grant and his party, which ran to such a high mark during the holidays, has returned to night and surges in every circle in the capital. The sessions of the Senate, by week after next, will be rife with division and crimination, and the stormiest era since impeachment is conceded to have set in.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. World.

JOHN H. SURRATT.—The Washington correspondent of the Boston Herald gives the following:

"Surratt is now in South America, but will return here in a month. I learn from one of his friends that he has prepared a full and explicit statement of the conspiracy which resulted in the death of President Lincoln. In this he denies all knowledge of any assassination plot, but confesses freely that Booth and himself and others were in a plot to abduct Mr. Lincoln. He declares that assassination was never spoken of to him, and was not agreed on by Booth and Payne until the night it took place. He further insists on the entire innocence of his mother, maintains that every effort was made to keep the abduction plot from her knowledge, and says she was simply the victim of unfortunate circumstances and the machinations of the witness Welch man, whose evidence it will be remembered, caused Mrs. Surratt's conviction. Surratt proposes to tell every thing he knows, the good, bad and indifferent, and make oath to it. He feels, it is said, that it will be so impartial and straightforward that it will be believed."

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18, P. M.

Bingham's bill provides for the admission of Mississippi, when its Legislature ratifies the fourteenth amendment, and removes the disabilities imposed by the fifth section of the seventh article of the Constitution, and declares void the disabilities imposed by the third section of the seventh article of the Constitution.

The Senate Judiciary Committee has taken no final action on questions presented by the Virginia Conference Committee.

The Virginia Committee, in a body, accompanied by other Virginians and Gen. Schofield, visited Gen. Grant. The conversation turned on business of the Committee, and Gen. Grant, who showed himself familiar with Judge Underwood's Constitution, expounded himself in favor of a speedy settlement. The interview was of some duration.

The Committee express themselves highly satisfied. They afterwards visited the President.

The President's response to the Senate's Amnesty questions, simply quoted authorities upon which the proclamation was based.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18, P. M.

SENATE.—A petition for the revision of the amendment, to the naturalization laws alleging gross frauds, was presented.

Trumbull presented a memorial, from the Superintendents of the Insane Asylums at Boston, asking the removal of political disabilities from Insane Asylum Superintendent's throughout the South.

A large number of business men, throughout the country, petition, that the sales of bonds by the government, to be only made after due notice, and that the sales of gold by auction.

A mutual white-washing of Senator's, and the abuse of newspaper correspondents, occupied about an hour.

Sherman from the Finance Committee, reported a bill legalizing coin contracts, reserving one hundred and forty millions annually from customes, for the payment of interest, and the reduction of the principal of the public debt, and authorizing the exchange of lawful money for new. Ten forty-five per cent gold bonds, to be issued for the purpose, also to issue gold notes not exceeding the coin in the Treasury to be used for the purchase in New York open market of six per cent securities, but the amount expended for this purpose, not to exceed the amount of legal tenders, surrendered for new bonds. The bill also authorizes National Banks to issue gold notes to the extent of sixty-five per cent on the amount of bonds, which they may deposit as security, regardless of the present restriction of the total circulation to three hundred millions.

The Copper bill was discussed, and without action the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—Butler introduced a bill regarding negro church property in the lately rebellious States. It provides that property used for charitable, religious, educational or other like purposes, bought or given, for the use of congregations or associations of colored men, heretofore held by trustees for the benefit of such associations that such title shall hereafter rest in Deacons, elders or trustees chosen by such associations who are made a corporate body; such association's shall call meetings on the first of May next and every May thereafter and choose trustees for the ensuing year.

Wood introduced a bill repealing the charter of the National Life Insurance Company of the United States.

A joint resolution passed that persons now holding office in Virginia and Texas, except whose disabilities have been removed, and who cannot take the test oath of July 2nd., 1862, be removed from office within thirty days from the passage of this resolution, and the District Commanders to fill their places with Union men who can take the oath. This passed without discussion.

The House then went into a Committee of the Whole on appropriations, and adjourned.

FROM GEORGIA.

ATLANTA, Jan. 18, P. M.

A resolution was introduced in the House that the Senate and House of Representatives adjourn till the third day of June was defeated.

A resolution was introduced to appoint a joint committee of four of the House and two from the Senate, to take into consideration the question of reconstruction with a view of its amicable adjustment, was defeated.

In the Senate a resolution passed on Saturday calling on the Governor for facts wherein he states that there is no protection in this State for life, property, &c., was referred to a special committee of five, with power to send for persons and papers.

FROM SOUTH CAROLINA—THE LEGISLATURE.

COLUMBIA, Jan. 18, P. M.

The Legislature, to-day, passed a bill amending the State Police Act, giving the Governor authority to increase the force to whatever number he may deem necessary, also passed an act to establish a State Orphan Asylum.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 19, 1869.

THE HOUSEHOLD ANGEL.

She grows no older: year by year,
At least not to the outward seeming,
She only wins all hearts anear
With that sweet face where peace is beaming

Yet closely view that golden hair
And you shall see the white threads stealing;
And though the brow is smooth and fair,
Yet time his way is o'er it feeling.

So soft her step! so sweet her voice!
So fraught her daily life with loving;
Her very smile makes all rejoice,
And from its spell there is no roving.

The little children round her cling;
She tells them fairy tales at even,
And with them oft she loves to sing
Sweet hymns that breathe of Christ and Heaven.

She listens to the old man's tale,
Oft told and maundering of the hours
When life for him wore pleasure's veil,
And youth was garlanded with flowers.

No hand can raise the sick one's head,
Or cool the burning flush of fever,
Like her's—and not an angel's tread
Could come so lightly, tiring never.

She has a helpful word for all,
She wins the reorvant back with kindness;
She stoops to lift who stumbling fall,
And, pitying, never mocks their blindness.

To her we go when sorrows come—
She soothes the hour of bitter weeping;
Her still sweet face illumes the home,
Though death within his watch is keeping.

So gently goes she down life's way—
Perhaps her feet are torn and bleeding:
Intent to aid another's way,
The thorns in her's she heeds unheeding.

So gently she goes o'er life's way—
We never hear a word complaining;
Like some sweet bird at early day,
Her wing to Heaven is ever straining.

Purchance that tuneful harp of her's
May have some string forever broken;
Some chord that yet in memory jars,
And echoes sorrows never spoken.

We know not—only this we know,
She's dearer far than any other;
To part with her were crushing woe,
For in our home we call her "mother."

"Mother!" sweet name that infant lips
First learned to call our household angel,
Whose briefest absence is eclipse—
Whose presence is love's best evangel.

FLOWERS AT FUNERALS.

BY HENRY WARD BEECHER.

A correspondent in the West, formerly residing in Brooklyn, N. Y., and there accustomed to see flowers employed freely at funerals, writes to us to say that he had brought down upon himself severe animadversion by following this beautiful custom on a recent funeral occasion, and he asks us to express some opinion of the use of flowers at the funeral of our dead.

About fifteen years ago I was called to officiate at the burial of a sweet girl, about sixteen years of age. Her parents stood high in society, and she was their only child. When I entered the spacious parlor, and went to the coffin, the face was so fair that it seemed to me as if the world on the other side was shining through it. But she seemed only. In her narrow chamber she lay in pure white, without a single flower. I could not bear it, and without saying a word to any one, I left the room. There was within a block a garden and nursery, whose proprietor I well knew. I fairly ran to his greenhouse and, without salutation, cried out: "Davidson, cut me everything choice, that is white, that you have got."

With my hands full of white roses, tuberoses, orange blossoms, sweet alyssum, etc., I returned and entered the parlor. The moment I passed the door, every one seemed moved by the same impulse. The father and mother rose up in tears and came to the coffin. Friends took from me and began dressing the coffin with them, and the mother, with a deep sigh, said, "Oh, this is just what we wanted: but we were too full of sorrow to think of them."

Will any one tell why those flowers ought not to have been there? Can any one refuse flowers to dying bodies of those who are disciples of Him of whom it is said:—"Now, in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre. * * There they laid Jesus."

For my own part, I shall never cease to be thankful that John (he only, of all Evangelist,) mentioned that comforting fact.

After the grim horror of the arrest night, the fierce cruelties of the trial, and the burden and anguish of the crucifixion, it is inexpressibly soothing to follow the sacred form to the quietude of a garden and lay him down in a cool rock chamber around which flowers hung. There, in the morning flowers, drooping with the weight of dew, leaned their heads against the stone, not knowing whose sepulchre then made beautiful, nor that the perfume which then exhaled was a nobler offering than all the incense of the sanctuary. There, in a garden, among green leaves, and fragrant vines, and spicy blossoms, and leaves murmuring in the gentle wind, he rested, and waited for the auspicious day when lifting his head with renewed life he should lift up to new hope and sublime destiny every man on earth!

If there were no other reason, it is enough that friends are comforted. What mother but is glad to see her innocent child, never so dear and beautiful as in death, lying amid fragrant flowers? Who that has true sentiment but feels that something is taken away of the earthiness of death by the presence of flowers?

Must we forever regard death from the heathen stand-point? Shall we forever give way to grief without restraint? Shall we studiously endeavor to make sadness yet sadder, and grief yet more anguishful.—Shall we muffle ourselves in black and funeral smelling crape, and sing doleful hymns, and weep out mournful prayers, and meanwhile refuse all sense of victory, all hope of immortality, all knowledge that there is no death to a true soul, but only exaltation into better life?

"I will not leave you comfortless," said the Savior. Yet, ten thousand Christians have so gloomily borne their bereavements, that the young men of the world look upon death as the one awful catastrophe of life. They have dressed their houses in weeds, and left the corpse so bald and bare, in the bodily dishonor of death, that men have no reason to believe that Christ walks with his disciples in the valley and shadow of death, or that he plucks heavenly flowers and dresses therewith the hearts of his followers, so that their griefs, like his own suffering body, shall rest in a garden.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

EXCELSIOR! ÆTNA!

Another Loss Paid, Dec. 23, 1868.

$5,000.

"Received of the ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, at the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent, payment in full for my deceased husband's policy, No. 49,681, amounting to $5,000, dated 16th November, 1867.

MRS. BETTIE E. BARNETT,

Smithfield, N. C."

ALL THE COST of the above was $59 85. The assets of the Company are now

$11,000,000,

Ample guarantee for future losses. And with all the peculiar advantages proposed by rivals, none have ever yet done better, for the living or the departed, than this old and well tried Institution.

The ÆTNA is not before the American people as under bidder for subjects. Her standard is as liberal and fair as possible for the security and safety of all, who wish to be gainers in the end.

Persons contemplating an investment will find it to their interest to call on the subscriber, or any of his agents.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but stop, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That as this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the third section of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in this State, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.
